

Frequent Deliveries Reduce Medication Supply Problems

Routine deliveries are from once to three times each day as determined by the facility size and acuity needs.

Urgent medications will be delivered within four hours of processing during regular operational hours.

After-Hours delivery times may vary but will not exceed four hours.

Back-Up services will be established as per facility requirements.